

Barton Arts Festival 2016

Friday 24 June 8pm

Different Oceans

Ropery Hall, Maltkiln Road
£3 in advance £5 on the door

Banned Night - an under 18s alcohol free night featuring Different Oceans, a group of young musicians from North Lincolnshire playing soft rock, funk and R&B. Supported by singer-songwriters Mark Roland and Sarah Clayton - a great night out for under 18s.

Saturday 25 and Sunday 26 June

Open Gardens

Entry £4 per person to be paid at Wilderspin School or The Ropewalk. Daily 12pm - 5pm

A firm fixture in the Festival calendar whether you are an avid gardener or are curious to check out your neighbour's roses. Teas available in selected gardens. Event in aid of Lindsey Lodge Hospice

Saturday 25 June 2pm

Zero to Hero

Ukulele Workshop with Jacqui Wicks
Wilderspin School, Queen Street. £4

Join the ukulele revolution in this fun 75 minute workshop. Time to learn two simple songs and enough chords to set you off on your own ukulele adventure. Then perform your work in Open Gardens at 3.15pm. No experience necessary and Ukes will be provided. Book early as we anticipate this to be popular.

Saturday 25 June 7pm

North Country Theatre presents Twelfth Night

Bardney Hall, Whitecross Street
£12 in advance £14 on the door (under 16s £5)

Hugely popular wherever they go, NCT is celebrating 20 years of rural touring with a new production of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night and reunites many of the actors that have featured in its shows over the years.

Susan Calman

Offer: book for both Twelfth Night and The Canterbury Tales for just £20 per person

Sunday 26 June 7pm

Pantaloons Theatre presents The Canterbury Tales

Bardney Hall, Whitecross Street *
£12 in advance £14 on the door (under 16s £5)

A cast of five brings every one of Chaucer's timeless tales to life in just under two hours. Join the pilgrims for puppetry, poetry, music, talking chickens and burnt bottoms. Wild, physical and funny – this is medieval mayhem for all the family.

Monday 27 June 7.30pm

Monday Night at the Movies

Ropery Hall, Maltkiln Road. £4

Hue & Cry (1947) is regarded as the very first Ealing Comedy. An energetic combination of youthful adventure and comic book fantasy it stars a number of familiar and much-loved faces including Harry Fowler, Jack Warner and Alastair Sim. This will be accompanied by The Plank featuring Eric Sykes and Tommy Cooper.

Tuesday 28 June 2pm to 5pm

The Graham Saunders Lecture:

Wilderspin School, Queen Street. £4

Shakespeare in Concert Hall, Ballet and Opera –
A 400th Anniversary Celebration

Tuesday 28 June 5pm to 7pm

Ted Lewis Presentation

Wilderspin School, Queen Street. £4

Members of the Ted Lewis Group read from and explain purple passages from the Barton and Hull based novels of Ted Lewis (1940 - 1982) and show how the experiences he drew on fed into his famous work "Get Carter" and other crime fiction novels.

Tuesday 28 June 8pm

Susan Calman

Ropery Hall, Maltkiln Road
£10

We are delighted to announce that we have Susan Calman on a special preview, as she drops into Barton in preparation for her 2016 tour. An intimate evening where you get to try out her new jokes, some good, some bad, some incomprehensible. But all good fun. You might even hear things that will never be said again.

Wednesday 29 June 8pm

Barton Muse Poetry Open Mic with Music and Song 7pm to 9.30 pm

The Old Mill, Market Lane. £5

In the upstairs room of the Old Mill, listen to invited poets and contribute works of your own (published or unpublished) if you wish. Contributions limited to five minutes each.

Wet weather provision:
Joseph Wright Hall

Budapest Cafe Orchestra

Thursday 30 June 2pm - 4pm

Songs and Scones

St. Mary's Church Hall

Free Entry

Professional musicians from the Live Music Now charity perform a selection of classical and popular songs. Founded by Yehudi Menuhin and Ian Stouitzer it supports inspirational professional musicians to use their talents to benefit the wellbeing of older people. Working alongside Age UK/Barton Rotary and volunteers, Songs and Scones brings together older people in the local community for a social musical session followed by refreshments.

Thursday 30 June 7.30pm

The Budapest Café Orchestra

Ropery Hall, Maltkiln Road
£13 in advance, £15 on the door

With violin, guitar, accordion, double-bass, saz and balalaika combined with wit, charm and good humour, the infectious energy of the BCO will sweep you off your feet. From desperately evocative heart-rending ancient Jewish melodies to dances from Russia and Romania the evening will stay with you long after the curtain goes down.

Friday 1 July 8pm

Jacqui Dankworth and Charlie Wood

Joseph Wright Hall, Queen Street

£15 in advance £17 on the door

Multi award winning vocalist, Jacqui Dankworth, is joined by acclaimed American pianist-vocalist, Charlie Wood, for a unique concert of duets celebrating a century of song.

Inspired by some of the great musical partnerships, such as Ray Charles & Betty Carter, Ella Fitzgerald & Louis Armstrong.

Saturday 2 July 10.30am – 12 noon

Val Wood in conversation with Sue Wilsea

Wilderspin School, Queen Street. £4

Join Val Wood, "Hull's answer to Catherine Cookson" (Kirsty Lang, BBC Radio 4), in conversation with writer Sue Wilsea as she discusses life, writing and more. She is the author of 'The Hungry Tide', winner of the Catherine Cookson prize for fiction. Val has written 22 novels, including her latest 'Little Girl Lost'.

Jacqui Dankworth

Saturday 2 July 8pm

Barry Cryer with Colin Sell

Strictly Come Joking

Joseph Wright Hall, Queen Street

£18 in advance £20 on the door

Don't miss the Ant and Dec of the Sanatogen set as they reunite for a brand new show. A great Saturday night's entertainment with songs, jokes and the amazing realization that they are still here – make sure you join them before they come apart!

Sunday 3 July 2pm

Pantaloons Theatre present Gulliver's Travels

Baysgarth Park, Caistor Road. Free*

As part of Barton Tourism Partnership's season of Performance in the Park

Come along to the park to join Lemuel Gulliver

SnakeStrings

on his fantastical and hilarious voyage into the unknown... meet the tiny people of Lilliput and the giants of Brobdingnag; An outdoor theatrical adventure for all the family in this new adaptation of Jonathan Swift's classic story.

Sunday 3 July 7.30pm

SnakeStrings

Trinity Church, Holydyke

£14 in advance/£16 on the door/£5 under 16s

If you like Snake Davis then you will love his newest musical venture – SnakeStrings. Working with one of the finest string quartets around – SnakeStrings perform a mixture of funky, classical, soulful and world music, all with a Snakey twist. With tunes from 'River Deep Mountain High' to 'A Little Respect' to self penned numbers, to classics from Faure to Bach, this show crosses genres and introduces a wide range of music to audiences of all ages and backgrounds.

BARTON ARTS FESTIVAL 2016

IS SUPPORTED BY:

Barton Town Council

Barton Lions

Barton Rotary Club

Beercocks

Cooke Webster & Co

Lords & Ladies Studio

MD Signs

North Lincolnshire Council

RNS Chartered Accountants

Smith & Walker Optometrists

The Ropewalk

W M Codd Ltd

Tickets are available from The Ropewalk, by telephone 01652 660380 or online at www.the-ropewalk.co.uk

Registered Charity 1121736

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Barton Arts Festival 2016

JUNE 24 - JULY 3

Cover image: Barry Cryer

www.bartonarts.co.uk